Robinson v. State, 53 Md. 151.

Concealed Weapons.

1878, art. 27, sec. 30. 1886, ch 375. 1894, ch. 547. 1904, ch. 114.

33. Every person not being a conservator of the peace entitled or required to carry such weapon as a part of his official equipment, and not carrying such weapon as a reasonable precaution against apprehended danger, or who is not an officer or conservator of the peace of some other State temporarily sojourning in this State, or a railway special agent, who shall wear or carry any pistol, dirk-knife, bowie-knife, slung shot, billy, sand club, metal knuckles, razor or any other dangerous or deadly weapon of any kind whatsoever (penknives excepted), concealed upon or about his person, and every person who shall carry or wear any such weapon openly with the intent or purpose of injuring any person in any unlawful manner, and not for any proper purpose of self protection, shall, upon conviction thereof, be fined not more than one thousand dollars, or be imprisoned not more than two years in jail or in the House of Correction; and the court or jury before whom any such case may be tried shall in all cases have the right to judge of the reasonableness of the carrying of any such weapon, and of the proper occasion therefor, upon satisfactory proof; and in case, upon conviction of any offender, the court, in view of the evidence, shall be of the opinion that such weapon was carried with the deliberate purpose of inflicting grievous and unlawful injury to the life or person of another, it shall in that case be the duty of the court to impose the highest sentence of imprisonment hereinbefore prescribed.

Conspiracy.

Ibid. sec. 31. 1884, ch. 266.

34. An agreement or combination by two or more persons to do or procure to be done any act in contemplation or furtherance of a trade dispute between employers and workmen, shall not be indictable as a conspiracy, if such act, committed by one person, would not be punishable as an offense; nothing in this section shall affect the law relating to
